Holodomor March: In the autumn of 2012, Ukrainians throughout the world will begin a yearlong commemoration of the 80th anniversary of Ukraine's Genocide of 1932-1933, when up to ten million innocent victims were starved to death due to a deliberate Soviet policy designed to crush the nationally conscience Ukrainian peasantry. On Saturday, November 17, 2012 thousands of Ukrainian Americans will march in New York's borough of Manhattan under banners proclaiming "Ukraine Remembers – The World Recognizes". The march will begin at St. George's Ukrainian Catholic Church promptly at 10:30am and conclude at St. Patrick's Cathedral, where a solemn ecumenical requiem service will follow at 1:00pm.
